Production Production for the third season of Glee was delayed due to the 2011 Writers Guild of America strike. It was initially reported that the season was to premiere on October 5, 2011. However, after its initial premiere date was pushed back a week, it was then reported that the second episode would not premiere until November 16, 2011. This was because the October 5 date was not enough time to air 22 episodes of the third season. On October 27, Fox chairman Kevin Reilly told reporters that the final episode was still slated to air on April 6, 2012 and that he was optimistic the season would be completed in time. The third season was also the first season of Glee without a Christmas episode. Season 3 DVD Cover.jpg. Promotional poster .
